Day 1 — Monday 23 November

Home to Tenterfield

D

With our pickups all done, we will make our way on the road. How good will it feel to have actually have a suitcase packed for the first time in ages?

Morning tea will be a little further up on the road provided by Northland Coach & Travel.

We're not going to tell you too much about the itinerary because we just want you to sit back and relax and enjoy the journey. This tour will not be a rush/hurry tour—instead we want to give you a nice relaxing 2 days away from the everyday! Let's face it. Covid has been hard on everyone and we are all bit stressed in one way or another so that's why we just want to get you away, clear the head and enjoy the serenity of life again.

There will be a few nice venues that we will visit today and we know you won't be disappointed!

Lunch will be a "get your own" in Tenterfield today. You'll be sure to find somewhere nice here in this little country town to purchase something delicious.

We can't go to Tenterfield without having a visit to the Railways Museum so that will be on the agenda today too.

Late afternoon we will head to our accommodation to unpack, chill and then we will enjoy dinner in their restaurant.

Accommodation:- Henry Parkes Motor Inn, Tenterfield – 02 6736 1066

So after breakfast at the Motel, we will pack up, load the coach and start our next days' travelling. You'll see nice plants, antique things, a bit of leather and nails if you wish and enjoy a wander.

Early afternoon, we'll start our journey back home with our bags a tad heavier and our heads full of memories of a simple little getaway with your Northland Coach & Travel family.
