

Mothers Day at The Channon

Sunday 9 May 2021

The Channon Craft Market Inc. was established at The Channon Village, Lismore as a “Make It, Bake It, Grow It” Market in 1976.

There are over 250 stall sites every month. There is a large variety of goods for sale including art, craft, bric a brac, children’s amusements and activities, fresh produce and therapeutic goods and services.

Local bands and performers entertain the public on the oval. A large number of buskers also contribute to the colourful atmosphere. Throughout the market you can indulge in delightful food and beverages, in allocated eating areas amongst the shade or at the Chai Tent. The Channon Craft Market brings investment and employment to the village, Lismore and surrounding area.
